About Singapore Media Fusion

The Singapore Media Fusion strategic positioning encapsulates the attributes of the media industry by showcasing Singapore as a global media city. It is a mark of the quality of our products and services and the collective richness and diversity of the media industry.

The positioning not only lends consistency to the manner the Singapore media industry is represented and promoted. It is also intended to enhance the image of Singapore media at an international level, in a compelling and coherent manner.

Introduction

Singapore is fast becoming a strategic springboard for the international media community. Already, major media brands like AXN, BBC World, CNBC Asia, Discovery Asia, HBO Asia, MTV Asia, Nickelodeon, Walt Disney Television and more have chosen Singapore as their hub-of-choice for the Southeast Asia region.

Many of these companies are also using Singapore's extensive range of media services from quality professional support, top-notch cost-effective production and post-production capabilities and facilities, talented producers, directors, to excellent filming locations. These services extend beyond the realm of live action and animated television programmes and feature films; they are also part of award-winning teams that have produced other short-form genres such as television commercials, promotional and channel identity trailers.

With Singapore's highly efficient infrastructure and emphasis on excellent, cutting-edge technology, it is easy to understand why these major companies have chosen to have work done in Singapore. Fluent in English and peppered with multinational influences, Singapore interfaces easily with the international community. Additionally, Singapore is known for its skilled force, IT infrastructure and strong intellectual property rights protection regime. This provides a multitude of opportunities for companies looking for creative and innovative media companies in Singapore.

For those who wish to film in Singapore or tap on the country's media services, the Media Development Authority of Singapore (MDA) will ensure that the journey through the Singapore media landscape is made as smooth as possible. MDA can facilitate contact with the various services as well as provide information on locations, cast and crew, facilities and technicians, regulations, rates, financial schemes and other related issues.

Singapore is your partner of choice with its good infrastructure, skilled companies and cutting-edge technology. The next few pages will introduce you to some of the best media services companies in Singapore. For more information, contact:
